they continued their  _____ to Yathrib. When the Prophet arrived, Muslims were thrilled to see him. Yathrib was known as

_____ after the immigration.

LEARNING STOP

Prophet Muḥammad, like all other prophets, may peace be upon them all, was truthful, trustworthy, and brave.

Non-Muslims used to keep some things with the Prophet to keep it safe for them because he was known for his trustworthiness among the people of Makkah. When the Prophet immigrated to Madinah, he left his cousin ‘Aliyy behind to return those things to the persons they belong to, even though blasphemers (nonbelievers) in Makkah were plotting to kill him.

The Hijrah was not an act of cowardly running away from the non-Muslims. The Prophet is the bravest man. The Hijrah was done in obedience to the order of Allāh, the Exalted.

Match each word to its antonym (opposite in meaning):

Truthful •

• Stupid

Intelligent •

• Coward

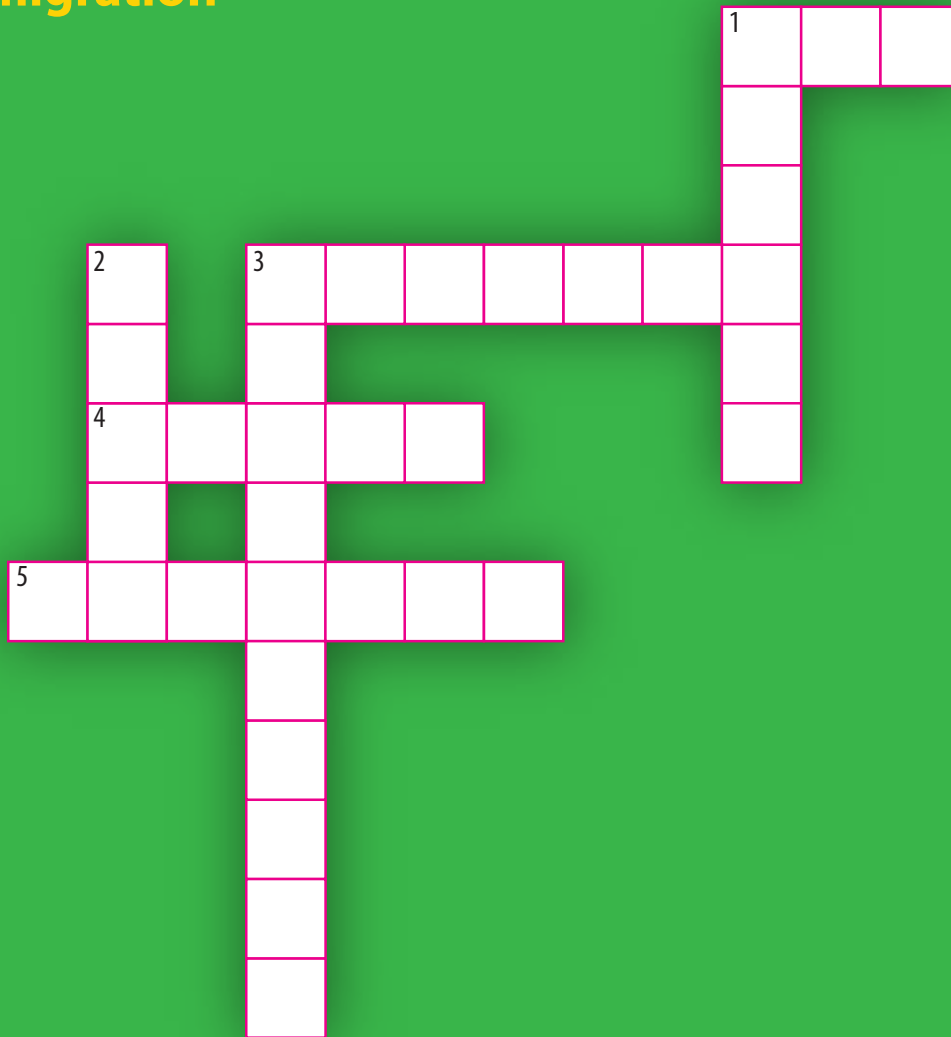

Trustworthy •

• Liar

Courageous •

• Cheater

The Immigration

Across

1. The weather in the desert during the day
2. The name of al-Madinah before the immigration
5. The animal that the prophet rode to al-Madinah
6. The first month of the Hijri year ( the Islamic calender)

Down

1. Immigration in Arabic
3. The companion that was with the prophet in Thawr cave
4. The place where Prophet Muḥammad, peace be upon him, was born

LEARNING STOP

Prophet Muḥammad travelled from Makkah to Madinah riding a camel.

The Prophet arrived to Madinah in the month of Rabi' al-Awwal. He was 53 years old. The trip took eight days.

Nowadays, you can go from Makkah to Madinah by car, plane, bus or train. Order the modes of transportation from slowest (1) to fastest (4).
